

Real Weddings - Erin & Jeremy

August 8th, 2009
Mt. Tabor Park

~ Menu ~

Seasonal fruit w/ Backyard Bounty Farm stone fruits
Green beans with butter and hazelnuts
Lime ginger chicken satay w/ sweet chili dipping sauce
Classic potato salad with sunchoke relish
Vegetarian meatballs with vodka tomato cream sauce
Gruyere and pear sandwiches
Turkey muffaletta sandwiches

Erin and Jeremy held their wedding at the very top of Mt. Tabor, with views of Portland and Mt. Hood in the background.

The reception was held in the picnic area with a perfect backdrop of Mt. Hood. We transformed the outdoor, woody area to a classy venue perfect for a summer wedding.

The bride and groom are huge fans of Voodoo doughnuts, so they decided to have “bride” and “groom” doughnuts made with their names written in icing across the top. See photo at right.

Overall, it was a wonderful summer afternoon wedding, and we enjoyed catering it just as much as the guests enjoyed attending!

